FUNDED COURSES

SIT30622

Certificate III in Hospitality

(Food and Beverage)

SIT50422

Diploma of Hospitality Management

(Food and Beverage)

The demand for skilled workers in the hospitality sector is growing.

Whether you're looking to work in a bar, café, restaurant, or hotel, you will develop all the skills you need by enrolling in this course, gaining both practical skills such as coffee-making and food-handling, as well as people-skills such as customer service and working as part of a team.

You will learn the professional skills that will get you hired: make great espresso coffee; serve alcohol responsibly; develop quality customer service skills; learn about hygiene practices, financial transactions, and other important operational skills.

Why Choose Stanley College?

- Practice in our on-campus restaurant
- Experience work-based training with real hospitality businesses
- Ideal starting point for your career in the hospitality industry. Learn from supportive and experienced hospitality professionals
- Be work-ready for in-demand hospitality jobs
